

Bruce Guthro

Celtic x-mas TOUR 2015

Bruce Guthro's Celtic X-mas concerts are a tremendous success. In 2014, he performed 22 concerts across Denmark and Germany, and most venues announced a sold out show. Therefore, many will be pleased to know that Bruce Guthro will be back in 2015 with a great Christmas show performing his original songs, Irish classics, and a number of the great and well-known English Christmas songs.

With him on stage, Bruce Guthro has his powerful, international six-piece band with members from both Ireland, Canada, and Denmark. Bruce Guthro's son, Dylan Guthro, is part of the band. In addition to being a talented guitarist and singer, he is an excellent song-writer. Also in the band is Irish Róisín Ryan who is a gifted fiddle- and mandolin-player. Furthermore, the audiences become mesmerized by Ryan's beautiful singing voice which creates great harmony with Bruce Guthro on stage. Guthro is not only a great singer and songwriter, he is also a brilliant storyteller. This is evident at the concerts where he engages the audiences with stories about his own Canadian Christmases and the funny characters from home.

On the Celtic X-mas Tour 2014 a concert DVD was recorded at beautiful Gram Castle where the Celtic sounds were fully embraced by the astounding historical surroundings. This DVD is being released with the Celtic X-mas Tour 2015 and the audiences can look forward to taking some of the Celtic Christmas spirit with them home.

Despite the great enthusiasm from audiences, it is only possible for Bruce Guthro to schedule a few concerts in Denmark in 2015. You will have to be quick if you wish to experience the Concert of the Year in 2015.

The ticket sale has begun at bruceguthro.dk

WWW.BRUCGUTHRO.DK