

BRUCE GUTHRO

Celtic summer 2015

Marts 2015

Bruce Guthro's Celtic concerts are a tremendous success. In 2014, he performed 22 concerts across Denmark and Germany, and most venues announced a sold out show. Therefore, many will be pleased to know that Bruce Guthro and the band will return in 2015 to fill the summer atmosphere with impressive Celtic tunes.

With him on stage, Bruce Guthro has his powerful, international six-piece band with members from both Ireland, Canada, and Denmark. Irish Róisín Ryan is part of the band and is a gifted fiddle- and mandolin-player. Ryan also mesmerizes the audiences with her beautiful singing voice which creates great harmony with Bruce Guthro on stage. Also in the band is Matt Bashford on Uilleann pipes and whistle. His brilliant Irish sound adds a refreshing authenticity to the music.

On the Celtic X-mas Tour 2014, a concert DVD was recorded at beautiful Gram Castle in the south of Denmark where the Celtic sounds were fully embraced by the astounding historical surroundings. This DVD is being released in 2015 and the audiences can look forward to taking some of the Celtic atmosphere and magic with them home.

Despite the great enthusiasm from audiences, it is only possible for Bruce Guthro to schedule a few concerts in Denmark in 2015. Therefore, you will have to be quick to secure your ticket!

"I'm really looking forward to play at the summer festivals with a powerful Celtic show underneath the Danish summer sky. See you out there!"

- Bruce Guthro

WWW.BRUCEGUTHRO.DK